Firekeeper's Daughter, Climate Change, Vernal Pools, and More at Fremont Library

The Fremont Area District Library is planning to host many fun and educational events in April for the whole family. These events are, as always, free.

Live @ the Library Events

Vernal Pools: The Coral Reef of the Forest on Thursday, April 11th at 7:00 p.m. How would you like to learn about Newaygo County's own "coral reef" of the forest? Vernal Pools are often called the forest version of a coral reef. They are the home of at least four indicator species that cannot survive if vernal pools didn't exist. The sad thing, though, is not much is known about these ephemeral ecosystems that only last 2-3 months. Also, they are not protected wetland areas under current laws and so are often filled in, sprayed or destroyed through human activity. Come learn about these special places just before the real action takes off in them this spring, and learn how you can be a part of scientific research and help protect these little spring oases. This event is for all ages. Bring the whole family!

Chris Edwards Presents: Climate Change as of 2024 on Monday, April 15th at 7:00 p.m.

Chris Edwards will present a verifiable fact-based look at the scientific state of the issues and impacts involved in climate change, localized in many ways to Michigan. We will explore a range of ideas to address the significant challenges we face, including what each of us can do. Chris Edwards began his career as a forecaster in the U.S. Air Force. He was one of the first meteorologists with The Weather Channel in Atlanta before moving on to forecast at WISN-TV in Milwaukee, and KYW-TV in Philadelphia. Edwards was honored with three Emmy awards for environmental reporting and weathercasting, and was recognized by the Michigan Chapter of the National Association of Television Arts and Sciences for Best Weathercast in 1999, 2001, 2002, 2003, and 2004.
