

Fremont Area District Library Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Stephani Gibson

231-928-0270

Fremont Library Gets a Visit from Abe Lincoln and Unveils Exciting Lineup of September Events for All Ages

This September, Fremont Library is proud to present a diverse array of events designed to engage, educate, and entertain community members of all ages. From captivating historical presentations to interactive exercise classes and engaging storytimes, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

Abraham Lincoln Impersonator Brings History to Life

On Thursday, September 7th, at 7:00 p.m., the library will host a special "Live @ the Library" event titled "Abraham Lincoln: A New Birth of Freedom." This immersive experience, ideal for ages 6 through adults, will feature an Abraham Lincoln impersonator who will transport attendees back to a crucial era in American history. Prepare to be captivated by this engaging and educational journey.

Stay Active with Fit for Life Exercise Classes

Join us every Monday and Wednesday at 12:00 p.m. for our invigorating Fit for Life Exercise Classes. Additionally, please note that the class on Friday, September 8th, will be held instead of September 4th due to the holiday. Stay motivated and work towards a healthier lifestyle in a supportive community environment that is for ALL fitness levels.

Reading Adventure with "Read to a Dog" (REGISTRATION REQUIRED)

For young readers, our "Read to a Dog" event on Saturday, September 9th, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m., offers a wonderful opportunity to enhance reading skills while spending time with a furry friend from Geno Dog Adventures. To participate, please call 231-928-0249 or visit the library to secure your time slot. This heartwarming event requires registration. For ages 12 and under, but older siblings can come with younger siblings. If your child cannot read on their own yet, you can read with them to the dog.

Reflecting on History with "Movie Monday"

In commemoration of the 9/11 attacks, Fremont Library presents "Movie Monday" on September 11th, at 2:00 p.m. The screening of "Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close" (PG-13; 129 min) will provide a chance for reflection and remembrance.

Engaging Discussions and Learning Opportunities

Throughout the month, the library will host a range of engaging discussions and learning opportunities. From the Wednesday Readers Book Group meeting on Monday, September 11th, at 7:00 p.m., to the Non-Fiction Book Discussion on Monday, September 18th, at 6:00 p.m., there's no shortage of intellectual stimulation. Join the Daytime Book Group on its new meeting day and place on Wednesday, September 27th, at 12:30 p.m. by the north fireplace. New members are always welcome.

Exploring Historical Mysteries and Natural Wonders with more "Live @ the Library" Events

Join us on Tuesday, September 19th, at 7:00 p.m., for a riveting presentation by Michael Deeb, who will shed light on "The Kennedy Assassination." Additionally, on Tuesday, September 26th, at 7:00 p.m., Lindy Colombini will take you on a journey through "Glaciers and the Shaping of Michigan's Landscapes."

Enriching Storytimes & Entertainment for Families

Fremont Library is delighted to announce the start of Toddler Storytime (ages 0-3) on Wednesday, September 27th, at 10:00 a.m., and Family Storytime (ages 0-5) on Thursday, September 28th, at 10:00 a.m. These engaging sessions will run through December 14th, fostering a love for reading from a young age. On Saturday, September 30th, at 11:00 a.m., Saturday Storytime (ages 0-5) promises more enriching tales for young listeners. A Children's Afternoon Movie will take place on Thursday, September 21st at 4:00 p.m. with a screening of Elemental (PG; 101 min). Free snacks and drinks are provided.

Library Card Sign-Up Month Celebration

Throughout September, we're celebrating Library Card Sign-Up Month. By signing up for a library card, you'll receive a goody bag complete with a fan/flashlight, candy, and more. Plus, each sign-up grants you an entry into our Grand Prize drawing. The adult Grand Prize is a $75 Visa gift card, and the child/teen Grand Prize is a $75 Walmart gift card, generously sponsored by Walmart. Remember, Library Card Sign-Up Month is for all ages, including babies.

For more information about these events and to stay updated on all that Fremont Library has to offer, please visit our website at www.fremontlibrary.net or call 231-924-3480. Don't miss out on a month filled with learning, entertainment, and community engagement!

Abraham Lincoln impersonator Kevin Wood will be at the library on Thursday, September 7th at 7:00 p.m. to present “Abraham Lincoln: A New Birth of Freedom” for ages 6 through adults.