Summer Reading Broke Records at Fremont Library Again

Children, teens, and adults all had an eventful summer with more people participating in our Summer Reading Program at Fremont Area District Library than ever before! Here are our final numbers:

- 714 children signed up and a whopping 401 kids finished the whole program!
- 168 teens signed up, and 81 finished the whole program. (This is incredible for our teen group!)
- 421 adults signed up and 169 finished the whole program.

Staff at the Fremont Area District Library have been completely blown away by this year's participation in Summer Reading, and we give a heartfelt thanks to our community for encouraging literacy and to our very generous sponsors of the Summer Reading Program: Blades Hair Design and Boutique, Blondie Blossom Boutique, American Truck Accessories/Bruce's Glass Shop, Bogen Massage, Brant Electric, CBD Store of Michigan, ChoiceOne Bank, David M. Byrne, Attorney at Law, Discovery Toys-Pat Durham, Elsie's Ice Cream, Excellence in Vision, Eye Care One, Firestorm Gaming, Friends of the Fremont Area District Library, Geers Family Chiropractic, Gerber Federal Credit Union, Hidden Treasures of Fremont, Karsten Financial Group-Raymond James, Koffee Kuppe, McDonald's, Meijer, Moon Dance Café, Nieboer Electric, NCCA-Artsplace, NorthPointe Gymnastics, Paulsen Heating & Cooling, Pawsitive Counseling, Pizza Hut, Red Pine Crafts & Gifts, Spanky's Pizza, Sportsmans Bar, Tamarac, The Blind Squirrel Tavern, The Original Print Shop, and Tire Wholesalers Plus.

Teens had two choices of grand prizes for Summer Reading this year: a paddleboard won by Kaylee S. or $100 in gift cards from Meijer won by Joey D. Congratulations to these two teen winners!

Nellie (above) won one of the children's grand prizes: a free birthday party from NorthPointe Gymnastics!

Adults had 3 choices of grand prizes this year. Gordon P. won $100 in gift cards from Meijer, Mary M. won a 6-month membership from Tamarac, and Kaitlyn V. won a pair of Oakley sunglasses donated by Eye Care One.
